

Do you know the difference between?
Animal welfare & Animal rights?

Animal welfare wants to humanely use animals for food and products!
That includes Meat, Milk, and eggs.

Animal rights say you can't raise livestock, eat meat, and drink milk

Animal welfare encourages moralistic breeding.

Animal rights wants to end all breeding and breeders.

Animal welfare wants to continue using animals that HELP humans
Such as seeing eye dogs, service dogs and police K9's.

Animal rights does not want animals to help humans.

Animal welfare wants captive breeding for endangered species.

Animal welfare encourages zoo's, aquariums, and sanctuaries.

Animal rights don't want humans to intervene or help animals.

Most important animal welfare encourages responsible pet ownership.
This includes pet dogs, cats, birds, and even exotics.

Animal rights wants to end pet ownership and liberate animals to extinction.

Knowing the difference is Important!
