Health Clinic:

- May 28/29 our cardiologist and ophthalmologist have been secured. The Inglewood community has reached out to us so we will be going with them again.
 - Because of the concern with the ophthalmologist that we used last time - Kimmi has been looking into
 - The cardiologist that the rottie club was interested in, from PEI, is not available and would not allow us to have Echo's available.

Education/Magazine:

- CGN in late summer, early fall. We will need a ribbon order.
- Gabby Ratou - would like to do the parasite chat with us again. Date penciled in for May 13th
- Dr. Terry Faber at Alberta dental has been contacted for an education night about oral health.
- Equine and Canine Bodyworks has been contacted to partner with us for a hands on massage course.
- First aid with Kimmi and Melissa - we have messaged the company that
- Ask your cardiologist toonie talk, following the health clinic, Leah would like to hand out flyers to those that attend the heart portion of the clinic.
- Idea for spotlights - like a spotlight on sporting and have a sporting member come chat with us all about their group. and this could carry over to our magazine.
- Leah will be reaching out to Toby to connect for a Linda Smith Handling seminar

- Open to suggestions; please forward them to Leah at CADFEducation@gmail.com

Magazine: It would be great if the membership could volunteer to help distribute copies of the new magazine into some vet offices, grooming salons, et cetera.

Membership:

- New applications from;
 - Jennifer Scott, She was a member in the 90's Breeds Papillons and is a veterinarian, CKC lifetime member
 - Tanya Rossman, Breeds St. Bernards. CKC member
